

Filmmaker and Author Bernhard Rammerstorfer
& the Austrian Consulate General in Los Angeles

are pleased to announce the

U.S. Premiere of the Documentary “Unbroken Will Captivates the United States” (33 mins.)

Victim of Nazi Tyranny Leopold Engleitner Keeps History Alive in his 100th Year

This will be preceded by a showing of the international prize-winning Documentary “Unbroken Will” (61 mins.)

The life story of the Austrian Leopold Engleitner (born 1905) who is now one of the oldest living concentration camp survivors worldwide

Following the screening of the films there will be a special opportunity to meet the 101 year-old Leopold Engleitner and have book and DVD signed by him and the author Bernhard Rammerstorfer.

Location:
Music Hall,
Beverly Hills

9036 Wilshire Boulevard,
Beverly Hills, 90211

English Screening: May 15 to 19, 2006 7 p.m.
May 20 and 21, 2006 2 p.m.

Spanish Screening: May 20 and 21, 2006 5 p.m.

More screenings available

General Admission

Ticket prices: 310-274-6869, www.laemmlle.com

During their educational 2006 U.S. tour Engleitner and Rammerstorfer have the following presentations scheduled:

- May 1, 7 p.m.: Georgetown University, Washington, DC
- May 2, 12 noon: Library of Congress – European Division, Washington, DC
- May 4, 4 p.m.: Columbia University – East Central European Center, New York
- May 8, 2 p.m.: Harold Washington College, Chicago
- May 9, 7 p.m.: Holocaust Memorial Foundation of Illinois, Skokie
- May 11, 12 noon: Stanford University – European Forum and Department of German Studies, San Francisco
- May 22, 7:30 p.m.: Los Angeles Museum of the Holocaust, Los Angeles

Honorary Committee of the “Friends of Leopold Engleitner”:

Wolfgang Schüssel, Federal Chancellor of the Republic of Austria and President of the Council of the European Union

Eva Nowotny, Ambassador of Austria to the U.S., Washington, DC

Martin Weiss, Austrian Consul General in Los Angeles

Robert Zischg, Austrian Consul General in Chicago

Klaus Heidegger, Entrepreneur and former Austrian World Champion Alpine Ski Racer

Professor Ursula Floßmann, Linz University, Institute for Austrian and German Legal History

Andreas Maislinger, Austrian Holocaust Memorial Service

Professor Walter Manoschek, Vienna University, Institute for Political Science

U.S. tour supported by the Republic of Austria