MEET HIM IN PERSON!

For refusing to join Hitler's Nazi Movement, Leopold Engleitner, now 103 years old, was brutally mistreated in three Nazi Concentration Camps during World War II. He still lives to tell his story. Leopold is accompanied by his biographer, Bernhard Rammerstorfer.

Introductory presentations by Dr. George Eisen, Historian, Lecturer, "The Ultimate Deception: The Nazi 1936 Berlin Olympics" and Robert Buckley, Consultant to the U.S. Holocaust Museum, "Minority group Jehovah's Witnesses targeted by Nazis."
